

Activity Worksheet

Collecting Information: Threat/Hazard Assessment

Obtain and review your jurisdiction's most recent threat and hazard assessment. Then answer the questions below.

• When was the assessment prepared?
• What types of threats/hazards does the assessment address?	<input type="checkbox"/> Natural <input type="checkbox"/> Technological <input type="checkbox"/> Human-Caused
• List the threats/hazards of greatest concern, based on likelihood and potential impact:	1. 2. 3.
• When will the assessment need to be updated?

Collecting Information: Community Profile

Obtain and review your jurisdiction's most recent community profile. Then answer the questions below.

• When was the profile prepared?
• What types of information does the profile include?	<input type="checkbox"/> Population demographics <input type="checkbox"/> Pet and service animal population <input type="checkbox"/> Geographic characteristics <input type="checkbox"/> Property types and locations <input type="checkbox"/> Infrastructure <input type="checkbox"/> Resource base <input type="checkbox"/> Current capability levels <input type="checkbox"/> Impact of threats/hazards on jurisdiction capabilities
• When should the profile be updated?

• What will be your strategy for updating the assessment and profile?

Activity Worksheet (Continued)

Analyzing Risk and Identifying Priorities

Based on the information contained in the current assessment, what are the implications for future planning efforts, as listed below?

- Operational Priorities: What will be the focus of your jurisdiction's new planning effort? (Consider the risks of greatest concern.)

- Goals: If planning is successful, what will you have accomplished? (Consider the capabilities needed to manage the identified risks.)

- Objectives: How will you know if success has been achieved?