

Setting Personal Learning Goals

Instructions: Based on the self-assessment that you just completed, the content outlined for this course, and the course objectives, identify two or three specific learning goals for yourself. Type your goals in the space below, print them, and use them as a reference for the course. When you are done, select Submit.

Type your personal learning goals in this area.